

The New Park Central

Case Study / Update

A dynamic, revitalized mixed-use project in Midtown!

Stanton Shafer serves as Chief Operating Officer of Holualoa Capital Management. His role with the company is primarily engaged in the company's operations, focusing on the asset management of the company's six million square foot portfolio of national and international properties, including office, industrial, retail, hotel and multifamily properties.

Shafer's background includes 22 years as a Capital Markets broker with Cassidy Turley BRE Commercial, joining the company in 1989 when it was Grubb and Ellis. During those two decades he completed sales of nearly $1.5 billion in assets and was selected as the NAIOP-AZ Investment Broker of the Year. Prior to his career as a real estate broker, Shafer spent 10 years as a practicing real estate attorney.

Scott Baumgarten serves as senior vice president and specializes in agency leasing for both institutional and entrepreneurial owners investing in office properties throughout Phoenix.

Before joining Transwestern in January 2018, Scott's 15 years of experience have been focused on office leasing, value add investment sales, land sales and tenant representation allowing him to advise clients across a variety of real estate services. Data collection and analysis is Scott's specialty and his ability to share critical market information with his clients to assist them in making intelligent business decisions is what drives him. His enthusiasm for serving his clients is matched by his ability to implement each asset's strategic marketing campaign.
