

Economic Impact of the Loop 202 Extension

Cathy Thuringer has responsibility for the Development and Investment Group for Trammell Crow Company and High Street Residential, TCC's residential subsidiary, in the state of Arizona. With more than 30 years in the real estate industry, her experience encompasses leading all phases of development from site acquisition through land use/entitlements, design/construction, marketing, financial performance and project disposition and includes more than six million square feet of development projects with a market value approaching $1 billion.

Lori Collins Since joining the City of Phoenix Community and Economic Development Department in 2015, Lori Collins has focused on developing and implementing strategies to encourage investment and drive job growth. As Deputy Director, she oversees the division responsible for business attraction and works daily with companies seeking to relocate or expand in Phoenix. An Arizona native, Lori has worked in Economic Development since 2001 and gained panoramic experience in the Greater Phoenix area by serving in various roles with organizations. Anne received her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Arizona State University and a Master of Business Administration from Thunderbird School of Global Management.

Martin Perez joined the City of Phoenix in 2017 and concentrates on the new L202/South Mountain Freeway corridor development and attracting high technology manufacturing companies to Phoenix. Over the course of his career, Martin has worked in both private and public agencies. In government, he has worked on Capital Improvement Projects, Building Permitting and Inspections departments and Economic Development since 2006. Martin has a thorough understanding of government processes and the site and facility needs of high-tech manufacturing companies.
